We Can Make Your Wishes Come True

Dear Friends,

Did you ever wish for a beautiful piece of jewelry for the holidays and what you received just wasn't it?

Well, we can make your wishes come true. What we are creating is a Wish List. Here's how it works:

1. Simply visit our store, browse and select as many items as you would like to receive for the holidays or for that special occasion.
2. We will keep a registry of these items on your list.
3. Mention to your loved ones that you have selected several items at our store and that you are registered on our Wish List.
4. Have them stop in and give us your name, and we will show them the items you have selected. You've now made shopping for your gift an easy task.

Remember, there is no obligation. Visit our store and let us help make your special wish come true!

Fashion Update

Celebrate 2005 With New Year's Jewelry That Really Parties!

This season's newest jewelry designs let you celebrate the New Year with sparkle, color, and zing!

Bright confetti colors set the tone for the season's hottest jewelry fashions. Plus slinky, serpentine styles of earrings, bracelets, and necklaces are the noise-makers for fashion forward jewelry styles. In addition, a host of other trendy designs, such as art deco and art nouveau, are all the rage as they blaze with brightly colored gems set in gleaming yellow gold or shimmering white platinum.

So start the New Year right, with a bright, happy celebration and jewelry that matches the occasion. Remember, the newest jewelry designs complement any costume - formal or not. But if you want to be strictly formal, the traditional colors for New Year's celebrations are classic black and white.

Elegant black and white jewelry never goes out of style. This season, popular designs feature black and white diamonds, black and white pearls, or combinations of opaque black and white gems such as onyx, moonstone, and mother of pearl.

Whichever you choose, your New Year's celebration is sure to be fashionable, festive, and fun!
